The Totty Cup was donated by a Goldthorpe Cinema manger, Russell Totty, in the 1920s

Originally it was a “senior school” competition but is now a primary school competition.

The Don & Dearne Sports Association ran this competition as well as a representative team for many years.

The Clarke Shield was for those schools that were knocked out in the first round of the Totty Cup. This changed to the Barlow-Salmons, when Frank Barlow & Geoff Salmons donated a trophy in 1974. They had both enjoyed their time playing Don & Dearne football and wanted to give something back.

The Story of Jorge Robledo

It is said that Jorge played in the Totty Cup Final, the Montagu Cup Final, the FA Cup Final and the World Cup Finals.

Jorge is front centre of the photograph of the successful Brampton Ellis team of 1939. Their trophies included the English Schools Cup.

Born in Chile in 1926, he emigrated to with his family to Brampton in 1932. After school he worked as a miner before Barnsley signed him and his brother, Ted.

After 3 seasons and 45 goals for Barnsley, Newcastle United were only interested in signing Jorge, but he refused to move without his brother.

At Newcastle, Jorge became the first foreign player to be top score in England. He was the Sergio Aguero of his day!

Chile recruited Robledo for their 1950 World Cup Finals, even though he spoke no Spanish. He played against England and scored in a 5-2 victory against USA.

He managed to score Newcastle's winning goal at an the 1952 FA Cup Final against Arsenal. This moment was sketched by an 11 year old John Lennon, which then appeared on his 1974 album cover, Walls & Bridges.

Ted went back to Chile to play for Colo-Colo in 1953, and he was soon followed by Jorge. He spent the rest of his days in Chile, retiring in 1961 and passing away in 1989.

Sadly, his brother died in mysterious circumstances in 1970, aged 42. He fell from an oil tanker into the sea off Dubai—his body has never been found.

Respect

Please remain at one side of the pitch, behind the Respect barriers. The other side of the pitch is for the coaches and substitutes. There should be no spectators immediately behind or near the goal (even the keeper's dad!).

We strive for school football to be played in a sporting spirit without the urgency to win at all cost. Please keep your comments positive.

Extra Time

If the teams are level at the end of normal time then 10 minutes of Extra Time will be played. If they are still level, there will be a 2nd period of Extra-Time. If they are still level, the match will be replayed on Thursday 12th April.

Thank You to...

Today's officials, Gordon Swann, Paul Ardron & Lewis Pursglove, who volunteer to give up their time each year. Lewis, Matt & Gordon are pictured (2017).

Gordon is a Totty Cup regular for decades —not just the finals, either. Lewis has run the line for the last 4 finals. Paul has the honour of officiating the Totty Cup this year.
